

Our Mission

Believing love and peace to be gifts living in all of us, Tacheria Interfaith Spirituality Center is dedicated to promoting spiritual growth and companionship in groups and individuals so we may serve as examples of wisdom in the world.

The Spirituality Center's Board is committed to making the yearly tuition for the two interfaith schools affordable. The schools are one of the best programs available for a very reasonable cost. For more detailed information check out the website: tacheria.org.

The Center provides scholarship resources for those who need support for the tuition. The Center relies on donations to support students on scholarship and their other programs. You can donate through our website. Go to:

Tacheria, a Yaqui word meaning inner spirit or inner journey reflects both the native Southwest roots and the purpose of our center:*

- to offer spiritual direction
- to help people grow in spiritual maturity
- to train spiritual directors
- to provide an interfaith, inter-spiritual home through classes, workshops and retreats.

Tacheria serves as a home where people from diverse beliefs or experiences of the Sacred gather and share wisdom...where differences are honored.

The Two-Year Program...

Our schools' area of focus explores the beliefs of many of the world's spiritual traditions and religions. Spiritual leaders and practitioners make up the faculty and share their insights, wisdom and experience.

Participants learn through dialogue, readings, spiritual practices, movement, and practicing holy listening. We welcome adults of all races, ethnicities, gender/sexual orientation and religious/spiritual beliefs.

- Two-year commitment, classes held one Saturday per month (Tucson—in-person, Phoenix—online) 9:00 am – 3:00 pm beginning in September and ending in June; one annual retreat (in-person both schools).
- Yearly cost is $600. Payments can be made throughout the year. Limited scholarship help is available.
